M. Lauver.

In California "Where It's Summertime"

Words and music by Jack Du Rall.

Published by Jack Du Rall Publishing Co.
813 Walnut Street Kansas City, Missouri

In California.

(Where It's Summer-time.)

Words and music by JACK DuRALL.

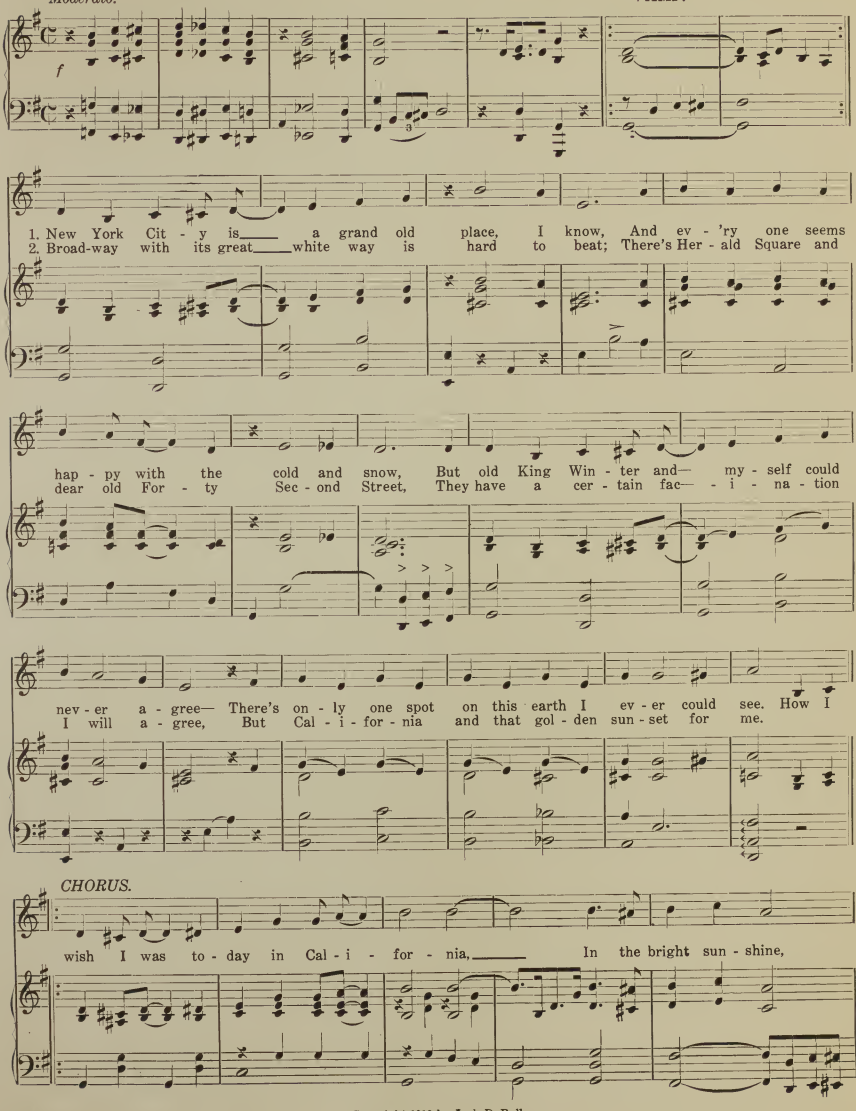
Moderato.

VAMP.



f
1. New York Cit - y is a grand old place, I know, And ev - 'ry one seems
2. Broad-way with its great white way is hard to beat; There's Her - ald Square and hap - py with the cold and snow, But old King Win - ter and— my - self could dear old For - ty Sec - ond Street, They have a cer - tain fac— - i - na - tion nev - er a - gree— There's on - ly one spot on this earth I ev - er could see. How I I will a - gree, But Cal - i - for - nia and that gol - den sun - set for me.
CHORUS.
wish I was to - day in Cal - i - for - nia, In the bright sun - shine, Copyright 1919 by Jack DuRall.

and where it's al-ways summer-time; In Cal-i - for-nia where sweet or-ange blos - soms per-fume the air, O, it's a pit - y to leave the Cit-y, But I wish I was there—Down where those la - zy palm trees sway to and fro; Back to the old Pa-cif - ic Coast I long to go. O, how I wish I was to-day in Cal - i - for - nia, In Cal-i-1
2
for - nia where it's Sum - mer - time! O, how I time!

In California Where it's Summer-time.